Michigan Hospitals—1988 Index

SUBJECT INDEX

Access

Dault, Jacqueline, Marquette County tries one-third share project, June, p 17.
Feingold, Eugene, What other states are doing about access, June, p 9.
Fortner, Lisa J., Red Cross, doctors, hospitals cooperate to assure access, June, p 19.
Kinney, Catherine, PhD, Health center's Disadvantaged Fund serves area's poor, June, p 21.
McDonnell, M. Margaret, ThM, Justice as an element in decision making, June, p 33.
Patton, Susan H., Patient dumping or transfer: A difficult question, June, p 23.
Caring for the uninsured, June, p 7.

Architecture/Design

Canfield, Richard L., AIA, Parking structures and aesthetic responsibility, May, p 52.
Chudler, Kevin M., JD, CON reform: Its impact on construction, May, p 56.
Grant, Myron A., MLA, and Carpman, Janet R., PhD, 'Wayfinding' in Michigan hospitals, May, p 45.
Haag, Peter B., PE, and Schoolcraft, Allen L., PE, An energy efficiency update, May, p 49.
Miller, Richard N., and Larson, Terry A., Build teams before buildings, May, p 21.
Pirscher, Carl W., FAIA, Critical care for aging hospitals, May, p 9.
Reid, Barbara, Trends in interior design, May, p 41.
Reid, Janine L., What to do when the sky starts falling, May, p 37.
Wurzelbacher, Linda A., Viewing pitfalls as challenges, May, p 15.

Data

Bailey, Christopher S., and Scheer, Steven B., Illinois: A public data state's experience, October, p 35.
Deane Clark, Jane, and Hamilton, Richard A., PhD, MHDC: The center for the voluntary health data system in Michigan, October, p 7.
Klegon, Douglas A., PhD; Hamilton, Richard A., PhD; Deane Clark, Jane, and Zorn, Robert, What do hospitals gain?, October, p 21.
Larks, Marlene, MPH, The national data challenge, October, p 25.
Wade, Richard, Data, quality, and the crossroads for communicators, October, p 41.
Voluntary data: Perspectives from some key participants, October, p 14.
The national overview, October, p 32.

Emergency Medicine

Aranosian, Robert D., DO, FACOEP, Emergency categorization: The background, purpose, criteria, results, January, p 31.
Frenza, James P., The rescuing of an ambulance service, January, p 23.
Hochbaum, Solomon R., MD, FACEP, The evolution of a medical specialty, January, p 7.
Seay, Audry B., ES communications system and the medical control authority: One county's example, January, p 19.
Swift, Howard G., EMS legislation in Michigan: The rewriting of Public Act 79, January, p 11.
Whitman, Mark A., The price of 'bad perception' in the emergency room, January, p 15.
Zeller, Charles T., MD, Medical helicopter services: Complexities challenge the medical system, January, p 27.

Ethics

Adams, George, Communications as an ethical imperative, December, p 34.
Fleck, Leonard M., PhD, Evaluating executive ethics: Is the ACHE Code enough?, December, p 13.
Moore, Terence F., The ethics of power, December, p 7.
Robbins, Dennis A., PhD, MPH, Toward integrated clinical/administrative ethics policies in health care, December, p 19.
Schindler, Thomas F., SS, Business ethics: A waste of time? A fig leaf? An essential component?, December, p 23.
Weber, Leonard J., PhD, The ethics of health care advertising, December, p 29.

Finance

Calcutt, Harry, PRS 10 years later: An independent's assessment, April, p 50.
Elliott, Colleen, Michigan hospitals: Fighting for their survival, April, p 7.
Hamilton, Richard, PhD, Deane Clark, Jane, and Lester, Julie L., The status of Michigan's smaller hospitals, April, p 13.
Hartman, Sara E., Voluntary reimbursement successfully controls cost increases, April, p 40.
Smith, Dean G., PhD, Constrained reimbursement forces tough choices, April, p 33.
Williams, Sarah, Private sector solutions for the uninsured, April, p 47.
Yellan, Robert J., The Medicaid-dependent hospital: Can it survive?, April, p 37.
A look back at PPS: DRGs after four years, April, p 21.
A Michigan Hospitals interview with: Richard Whitmer, April, p 29.

Graduate Medical Education

Butt, Maryanne, Michigan's unique history in graduate medical education, August, p 33.
Elliott, Colleen, State's environment affects residents' location decisions, August, p 29.
Gentile, Thomas C., Jr., Hammel, Ernest, PhD, and Deighton, Bruce, Putting a value on GME, August, p 11.
Gross, Janice E., MPH, GME: At the crossroads, August, p 20.

Mack, Robert E., MD, and Manninen, Charles O., MHSA, The impact of foreign medical graduates in Michigan, August, p 15.
Opipari, Michael I., DO, FACOI, FAODME, A look at Michigan's historical role in the growth of osteopathy, August, p 37.
Sharp, Lauren, PhD, What's happening with graduate medical education at the national level, August, p 7.
GME: Raising awareness about financing, August, p 21.

Hazardous Materials Management

Cruzen, Scott W., OHST, A prescription for employee health and safety, February, p 25.
Doucet, Lawrence G., PE, Infectious waste incineration: The dilemmas to overcome, February, p 7.
Kittle, Clifton, The employee's right-to-know, February, p 15.
Pendergrass, John A., AIDS: Labor department focuses on those who protect the public, February, p 13.
Simkins, Lisa K., PE, CIH; Lagomarsino, Sally J.; and Kalmes, Renee M., The community right-to-know, February, p 19.
Pollution 'costs' can be hazardous, February, p 21.
1987 toxic waste management legislative action, February, p 27.

Management

Garfield, Charles A., PhD, Peak performers motivated by a personal mission, July, p 29.
Griffith, John R., The mission of the well-managed community hospital, July, p 43.
Tenniswood, Mary Byrne, Integrity, innovation, and action: Hospital leaders speak out on leadership, July, p 21.

Marketing

Gallay, Leslie S., MA, MS; Trester, Kenneth G., BS; and Calhoun, Gary L., BBA, MS; Decision support through an integrated planning and marketing information system, September, p 21.
Jenks, Lyn, The maturation of marketing: Moving back to basics, September, p 14.
Keckley, Paul H., PhD, Push vs. pull marketing: How to maximize marketing's impact, September, p 7.
McElroy, Thomas, Hospital-physician bonding: The ultimate strategy, September, p 27.
Rowley, Vic, Beyond marketing: The concept is valid but not the process, September, p 31.
Gilbert, Dennis, and Goddard, Cal, Good teaching is one-fourth preparation and three-fourths theatre, September, p 36.

MHA/AHA

Seaman, David A., The next era for Michigan hospitals and their association, July, p 49.
Tenniswood, Mary Byrne, New directions: Michigan Hospitals asks Ed Connors about the AHA and the issues affecting our hospitals, July, p 35.
Jonson, Carol Williams, Profile: Kenneth E. Myers, November, p 9.

Nursing

Curran, Connie R.; Minnick, Ann; and Moss, Joan, Who needs nurses?, March, p 37.
Goodburne, Louise; and Jackson, Janet Y., Entry into practice levels: Opinions still vary, March, p 26.
Hart, Karen, and Lindquist, Karen, Nursing shortage: Issues and answers, March, p 7.
Infante, Marie C., The nursing shortage: A long-term care view, March p 33.
Koerner, Jo Ellen, In South Dakota, nurses assess, then choose their practice level, March, p 21.
Maklebust, JoAnn; Suchy, Susanne; Van Tassel, Marilyn; and Runk, Judith, Differentiated-practice pilot project produces positive outcomes, March, p 19.
Rosenfeld, Peri, The nursing supply: What do the data suggest? March, p 11.
A summary of House Bill 4911, March, p 29.
The shortage: Is it for real?, March, p 43.

Volunteers

Dingel, Beverly A., Volunteers contribute to hospitals' financial well being, April, p 52.
Roth, Clara, Video explains MAHA, January, p 39.
Roth, Clara, Auxilians and the legislative process, February, p 29.
Roth, Clara, Consult volunteers when making design decisions, May, p 61.
Roth, Clara, Volunteers can help subsidize indigent care, June, p 37.
Slingerland, Mary Jo, MAHA: A look 40 years after its founding and more than 3,500,000 hours of serving, November, p 92.
MAHA installs Bev Dingell as president, August, p 40.

AUTHOR INDEX

—A—

Adams, George, Communications as an ethical imperative, December, p 34.
Aranosian, Robert D., DO, FACOEP, Emergency categorization: The background, purpose, criteria, results, January, p 31.

—B—

Bailey, Christopher S., Illinois: A public data state's experience, October, p 35.
Butt, Maryanne, Michigan's unique history in graduate medical education, August, p 33.

—C—

Calcutt, Harry, PRS 10 years later: An independent's assessment, April, p 50.
Calhoun, Gary L., BBA, MS, Decision support through an integrated planning and marketing information system, September, p 21.

Canfield, Richard L., AIA, Parking structures and aesthetic responsibility, May, p 52.
Carpman, Janet R., PhD, 'Wayfinding' in Michigan hospitals, May, p 45.
Chudler, Kevin M., JD, CON reform: Its impact on construction, May, p 56.
Cruzen, Scott W., OHST, A prescription for employee health and safety, February, p 25.
Curran, Connie R., Who needs nurses?, March, p 37.

—D—

Dault, Jacqueline, Marquette County tries one-third share project, June, p 17.
Deane Clark, Jane, The status of Michigan's smaller hospitals, April, p 13; MHDC: The center for the voluntary health data system in Michigan, October, p 7; What do hospitals gain?, October, p 21.
Deighton, Bruce, Putting a value on GME, August, p 11.
Dingel, Beverly A., Volunteers contribute to hospitals' financial well being, April, p 52.
Doucet, Lawrence G., PE, Infectious waste incineration: The dilemmas to overcome, February, p 7.

—E—

Elliott, Colleen, Michigan hospitals: Fighting for their survival, April, p 7; State's environment affects residents' location decisions, August, p 29.

—F—

Feingold, Eugene, What other states are doing about access, June, p 9.
Fleck, Leonard M., PhD, Evaluating executive ethics: is the ACHE Code enough?, December, p 13.
Fortner, Lisa J., Red Cross, doctors, hospitals cooperate to assure access, June, p 19.
Frenza, James P., The rescuing of an ambulance service, January, p 23.

—G—

Gallay, Leslie S, MA, MS, Decision support through an integrated planning and marketing information system, September, p 21.
Garfield, Charles A., PhD, Peak performers motivated by a personal mission, July, p 29.
Gentile, Thomas C., Jr., Putting a value on GME, August, p 11.
Gilbert, Dennis, Good teaching is one-fourth preparation and three-fourths theatre, September, p 36.
Goddard, Cal, Good teaching is one-fourth preparation and three-fourths theatre, September, p 36.
Goodburne, Louise, Entry into practice levels: Opinions still vary, March, p 26.
Grant, Myron A., MLA, 'Wayfinding' in Michigan hospitals, May, p 45.
Griffith, John R., The mission of the well-managed community hospital, July, p 43.
Gross, Janice E., MPH, GME: At the crossroads, August, p 20.

—H—

Haag, Peter B., PE, An energy efficiency update, May, p 49.
Hamilton, Richard, PhD, The status of Michigan's smaller hospitals, April, p 13; MHDC: The center for the voluntary health data system in Michigan, October, p 7; What do hospitals gain?, October, p 21.
Hammel, Ernest, PhD, Putting a value on GME, August, p 11.
Hart, Karen, Nursing shortage: Issues and answers, March, p 7.
Hartman, Sara E., Voluntary reimbursement successfully controls cost increases, April, p 40.
Hochbaum, Solomon R., MD, FACEP, The evolution of a medical specialty, January, p 7.

—I—

Infante, Marie C., The nursing shortage: A long-term care view, March, p 33.

—J—

Jackson, Janet Y., Entry into practice levels: Opinions still vary, March, p 26.
Jenks, Lyn, The maturation of marketing: Moving back to basics, September, p 14.
Jonson Williams, Carol, Profile: Kenneth E. Myers, November, p 9.

—K—

Kalmes, Renee M., The community right-to-know, February, p 19.
Keckley, Paul H., PhD, Push vs. pull marketing: How to maximize marketing's impact, September, p 7.
Kinney, Catherine, PhD, Health center's Disadvantaged Fund serves area's poor, June, p 21.
Kittle, Clifton, The employee's right-to-know, February, p 15.
Klegon, Douglas A., PhD, What do hospitals gain?, October, p 21.
Koerner, Jo Ellen, In South Dakota, nurses assess, then choose their practice level, March, p 21.

—L—

Lagomarsino, Sally J., The community right-to-know, February, p 19.
Larks, Marlene, MPH, The national data challenge, October, p 25.
Larson, Terry A., Build teams before buildings, May, p 21.
Lester, Julie L., The status of Michigan's smaller hospitals, April, p 13.
Lindquist, Karen, Nursing shortage: Issues and answers, March p 7.

—M—

Mack, Robert E., MD, The impact of foreign medical graduates in Michigan, August, p 15.
Maklebust, JoAnn, Differentiated-practice pilot project produces positive outcomes, March, p 19.
Manninen, Charles O., MHSA, The impact of foreign medical graduates in Michigan, August, p 15.
McDonnell, M. Margaret, ThM, Justice as an element in decision making, June, p 33.
McElroy, Thomas, Hospital-physician bonding: The ultimate strategy, September, p 27.
Miller, Richard N., Build teams before buildings, May, p 21.
Minnick, Ann, Who needs nurses?, March p 37.
Moore, Terence F., The ethics of power, December, p 7.
Moss, Joan, Who needs nurses?, March p 37.

—O—

Opipari, Michael I., DO, FACOI, FAODME, A look at Michigan's historical role in the growth of osteopathy, August, p 37.

—P—

Patton, Susan H., Patient dumping or transfer: A difficult question, June, p 23.
Pendergrass, John A., AIDS: Labor department focuses on those who protect the public, February, p 13.
Pirscher, Carl W., FAIA, Critical care for aging hospitals, May, p 9.

—R—

Reid, Barbara, Trends in interior design, May, p 41.
Reid, Janine L., What to do when the sky starts falling, May, p 37.
Robbins, Dennis A., PhD, MPH, Toward integrated clinical/administrative ethics policies in health care, December, p 19.
Rosenfeld, Peri, The nursing supply: What do the data suggest, March, p 11.
Roth, Clara, Auxilians and the legislative process, February, p 29.; Consult volunteers when making design decisions, May, p 61; Video explains MAHA, January, p 39; Volunteers can help subsidize indigent care, June, p 37.
Rowley, Vic, Beyond marketing: The concept is valid but not the process, September, p 31.
Runk, Judith, Differentiated-practice pilot project produces positive outcomes, March, p 19.

—S—

Scheer, Steven B., Illinois: A public data state's experience, October, p. 35.
Schindler, Thomas F., SS, Business ethics: A waste of time? A fig leaf? An essential component?, December, p 23.
Schoolcraft, Allen L., PE, An energy efficiency update, May, p 49.
Seaman, David A., The next era for Michigan hospitals and their association, July, p 49.
Seay, Audry B., ES communications system and the medical control authority: One county's example, January, p 19.
Sharp, Lauren, PhD, What's happening with graduate medical education at the national level, August, p 7.
Simkins, Lisa K., PE, CIH, The community right-to-know, February, p 19.
Slingerland, Mary Jo, MAHA: A look 40 years after its founding and more than 3,500,000 hours of serving, November, p 92.
Smith, Dean G., PhD, Constrained reimbursement forces tough choices, April, p 33.
Suchy, Susanne, Differentiated-practice pilot project produces positive outcomes, March, p 19.
Swift, Howard G., EMS legislation in Michigan: The rewriting of Public Act 79, January, p 11.

—T—

Tenniswood, Mary Byrne, Integrity, innovation, and action: Hospital leaders speak out on leadership, July, p 21; New directions: Michigan Hospitals asks Ed Connors about the AHA and the issues affecting our hospitals, July, p 35.
Trester, Kenneth G., BS, Decision support through an integrated planning and marketing information system, September, p 21.

—V—

Van Tassel, Marilyn, Differentiated-practice pilot project produces positive outcomes, March, p 19.

—W—

Wade, Richard, Data, quality, and the crossroads for communicators, October, p 41.
Weber, Leonard J. PhD, The ethics of health care advertising, December, p 29.
Whitman, Mark A., The price of 'bad perception' in the emergency room, January, p 15.
Williams, Sarah, Private sector solutions for the uninsured, April, p 47.
Wurzelbacher, Linda A., Viewing pitfalls as challenges, May, p 15.

—Y—

Yellan, Robert J., The Medicaid-dependent hospital: Can it survive?, April, p 37.

—Z—

Zeller, Charles T., MD, Medical helicopter services: Complexities challenge the medical system, January, p 27.
Zorn, Robert, What do hospitals gain?, October, p 21. □